FEED THE NEED BACKPACK PROGRAM

We collect continuously for the children's backpacks so they have food to eat on the weekends. Place your donations of individual easy to open or microwaveable food in the area provided in the Donation Location table. See the list on the monitor of items needed.

Dr. Charles Page, world reknown student and Professor of early Bible history will conduct a lecture series beginning Sunday, January 31, continuing Monday and Tuesday evening, Feb. 1 & 2, with a potluck supper each evening at 6:00. He will speak on the "Early Ministry of Jesus." Invite others to attend. St. Andrew will be joined by FPC and WPC.

Page Turners will meet on Tuesday, February 23 at 10:00 am. For February we will read Amelia's Secrets: A Historical Novel by Maggie Carter-deVries. It is about the Golden Years after the Civil War that brought completion of the railroad and affluence with the influx of carpetbaggers from the North. Katie Eppes, wed one of the most dashing young conductors of the Florida & Peninsular Railroad, T. J. "Jeff" Eppes, great-great-grandson of President Thomas Jefferson. Learn the passions and secrets of the genteel women and men of Amelia Island, Florida. We will meet on February 22nd at 10:00 a.m. Hope to see you then.

Session Notes from January Mtg.

The following items are highlights from the January 18, 2016 Stated Session Meeting

1. Rev. Dr. Tammy Brown, Executive Presbyter and Stated Clerk for NAP moderated our meeting.
2. Rev. Brown also brought along Sarah Martin of the Committee on Ministry (COM) and introduced her as the new liaison person between the COM and our church. Sarah will also serve as our Moderator until we get a new pastor.
3. The minutes for the Congregational Meeting of December 27, 2015 were approved.
4. Our membership remained at 87.
5. The Session will be reviewing and discussing various alternatives for a new pastor for our congregation and will keep you all informed of progress as new information becomes available. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact any of the Ruling Elders, listed on the back of your bulletin each Sunday.
6. We are planning to co-host an exciting series of talks by Dr. Charles Page from January 31, 2016 through February 2, 2016. You will enjoy his programs!
7. The next Stated meeting will be on March 21, 2016 at 6:00 pm.

Stu Strong
Clerk of Session

NEW IN THE LIBRARY!

Somewhere Safe with Somebody Good by Jan Karon. This latest book once again invites her fans to join her in Mitford to spend time with the often comic and utterly human presence of her characters. They have never been more sympathetic, big-hearted and engaging.
