

The Chronicle

AUGUST 2017

From the Pastor ...Rev. Dr. Darryl Goldman

Dear Church Family,

Can it be that summer is nearly over? Just a few days ago I heard on the news that it was the first official day of summer and, "bam!", kids are lining up to purchase Crayola crayons, glue, and tablets, and signing up for soccer and whatever else they get on lists for these days.

Many of you are either still on vacation or telling stories from your travels. Sometime, if you tell me yours, I'll share when Linda and I went to Miami and I discovered a really good deal on some tours—including one on a faux pirate boat on which they handed out plastic swords and eye patches. That was not the worst. We still don't talk about it at home but enough time has passed that I can share it privately with others as a good learning experience.

The seasons come and go all too fast but the rhythm is comforting to us. Church colors mark the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, Lent, and Easter. Humans need this order to mark the seasons and we get excited to see them come no matter how many times we have been through the cycle.

This has been a difficult year for some in our congregation, with hospital visits or treatments at a clinic, or troubles at home. Some of you worried about test results and side-effects of drugs. You had to depend on God's promises. A favorite promise I like to share is in Isaiah 55:10-11: "For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

So, as we get on with facing new seasons, new routines and who-knows-what experiences, God's promise to you is firm. God's purposes will be fulfilled in you.

Therefore, I'll joyfully go on vacations in the future without the slightest fear of mishaps, mainly because Linda will be planning them. God bless you as we look forward to another year full of God's promises.

May the Lord bless you,
Darryl

MISSION OPPORTUNITY FEED THE NEED SCHOOL BACKPACKS

To continue with our theme of Helping Children at Risk, your Mission Ministry Team is going to be partnering with several churches in the community to provide food through the City-Wide Backpack

If you prefer, we will gladly accept monetary donations. Leave your check in the envelope provided or bring cash to the office during the week.

We are excited to continue this mission again and need your support and continued prayers. Thank you to everyone who helped last year feed the need in our schools--you did a great job!

To the Farthest Shores
by Elizabeth Camden

This is one of nine historical fiction novels by this award winning author.

The unpredictability of her upbringing prepared Army nurse Jenny Bennett to face any challenge at the Presidio Army base in California, but the sudden reappearance in her life of a dashing naval officer who broke her heart six years ago is enough to rattle even her.

This book covers it all, history, romance, mystery, suspense, and the characters overcoming insurmountable odds.

Wednesday Night Potluck Suppers and Classes will meet the following dates during the summer starting at 6:00 pm:

Wednesday, August 23

Weekly Activities start Wednesday, September 6

A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board for you to serve as a Host. Instructions are on the sheet. We need someone to sign up for August 23 and following weeks.

C.A.T.S. DAY TRIP

It is time for another CATS outing. Please plan to join us on August 25 when we will visit Decatur's newest museum--the Decatur Union Depot Museum located at 701 Railroad Street. The Director, David Breland, will provide information about the museum.

The museum features railroad and transportation artifacts, a mural of the city's rail history and a short movie that shares that history. Some of the pieces are the original superintendent's desk; round and X-shaped cast-iron cross-bucks that are mounted on the walls in the theater room, both about 100 years old; and a rare deep-green velvet Pullman passenger car seat.

After visiting the museum, we will travel down the road to one of our favorite places to eat -- Dot's. Mark your calendars for August 25. We will meet at the church at 9:30 to car pool to the museum.

A sign up form is in the church office. Contact Faye Anderson if you have questions.

School Supply Mission Project

We had a very good response to this year's project. We were able to fill the lists for 5 of our regular youth and children. The remaining supplies will be going to the CCC. Thanks to everyone who helped.
